Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 25 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning colder on Friday, with squally rain and showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
During the evening and into the night scattered showers will move in from the west with some clearer spells between. Towards dawn a squally band of heavy rain will push into the far southwest. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Friday:
A wet morning with a band of heavy squally rain pushing eastwards. During the afternoon sunny spells develop with scattered showers, at times heavy following. Potentially wintry over high ground. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Brighter with showers on Saturday but turning cloudier later. Cloudy with spells of rain on Sunday. Remaining largely cloudy with the chance of patchy outbreaks of rain on Monday. Breezy.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.